LAKE KILLARNEY

This man-made lake, formed by the construction of a dam between the mountains, is an ideal spot for boating, fishing, swimming and picnicking. The lake is well stocked with bass, crappie and perch, and many a fine catch is made each season. Lake Killarney, nestling between the encircling hills, is a thing of beauty. It would be impossible to imagine a more scenic drive than Highway 70, as it circles the north shore of the lake.
